Plum Creek Awards Scholarships to Two Alberton-Area High School Students

MISSOULA, Mont. – Plum Creek today announced it has awarded scholarships to two area high school graduates. Plum Creek annually awards scholarships to exemplary high school seniors who plan to continue their education after graduation. Students are selected based on their academic achievements, participation in extracurricular activities and career goals.

Area scholarship recipients include:

- Carly Aniballi – Aniballi is a graduate of Alberton High School in Alberton. She plans to attend the University of Montana – Missoula to study forestry. In high school, she was active in dance and the Student Council and was valedictorian of her class. She is the daughter of Deb Brovold.
- Lauren Lofts – Lofts is a graduate of Frenchtown High School in Frenchtown. She plans to continue her education at the University of Montana – Missoula where she will pursue a degree in business administration. She played softball and volleyball in high school, and earned All-State volleyball honors. Her parents are Gordon and Kris Lofts.

This year, Plum Creek has awarded 126 scholarships to high school graduates totaling $172,000.
