Plum Creek Awards Scholarships to Two Noxon High School Students

LIBBY, Mont. – Plum Creek today announced it has awarded scholarships to two area high school graduates. Plum Creek annually awards scholarships to exemplary high school seniors who plan to continue their education after graduation. Students are selected based on their academic achievements, participation in extracurricular activities and career goals.

Area scholarship recipients include:

- Andrew Gubel – Gubel is a graduate of Noxon High School in Noxon. He plans to attend Montana State University at Bozeman to pursue a degree in mechanical engineering. He was a member of the Business Professionals of America, National Honor Society, Who's Who Among American High School Students and the Academic Decathlon. Gubel was also his class valedictorian. He is the son of John and Sandra Gubel.
- Alissa Flockerzi – Flockerzi is a graduate of Noxon High School in Noxon. She plans to attend Montana State University at Bozeman in the fall to study communications. Flockerzi was a member of the softball and basketball teams in high school, and was active in 4-H club. She is the daughter of Karen Morey.

This year, Plum Creek has awarded 126 scholarships to high school graduates totaling $172,000.
